Nathan Phillips Square – City Hall – Toronto, Canada

Saturday, July 26

12 Noon - 9:00pm

“Celebrate Youth”

A FREE 9 hour annual outdoor festival with a capacity of 25,000 at City Hall

A unique family concert celebrating our Youth's achievements in dance, music and art
An opportunity for Corporate Champions to show they too care about our next generation ...

Hundreds of Youth and Canadian recording artists participate on 2 non-stop stages, showing we stand united against violence in support our next generation!

YOUTH DAY

Event History:

The inaugural YOUTH DAY 2007 at City Hall was designed to enable Youth 14 to 24 to showcase their incredible talents in music, art and dance. The astonishing success of its first year far exceeded the expectations of organizers and sponsors alike, with an audience of over 5,000 from as far as the United States and Quebec. Even Media deemed the event “commendable” and “long overdue”. The unprecedented concert featured some 300 performers over 9 hours, and was opened by the Honourable David Zimmer on behalf of Premier McGuinty; the Honourable John Tory, and spokesperson for the Youth Party of Canada, Tyler Johnson. 24 Youth finalists, who previously auditioned at the Lorraine Kimsa Theatre for Young People, were empowered to show us all - their peers - their family and friends, their outstanding achievements. Another 24 mentor bands, including headliner and Canadian recording artist Fefe Dobson also contributed their time to this important united event in celebration of our next generation. With City bells chiming at 6:00pm, the Canadian Cadets from all branches helped us salute our Youth serving overseas that couldn't be there that day, and a moment of silence was observed for those Youth we have lost to violence as the Canadian flag was folded to the national anthem. Extensive press coverage included CITY TV, CTV, Global Television and numerous print media. A great day was had by all, with a huge call for YOUTH DAY 2008.

Event Overview:

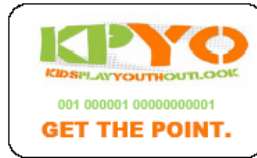

Now, as a part of the new Toronto summer landscape, this year's annual YOUTH DAY has gained momentum and new interest from School Boards and more Corporate Champions. The goal; to grow the event - and the Youth themselves are intent on a huge attendance to make “their” day a great success this July 26th. 2008 Additions include a Youth Gallery around the fountain at Nathan Phillips Square, so they can show us their fabulous works in fine arts, crafts and photography. Again there will be valuable information stations; from Youth resources, to career and volunteer opportunities offered by community and government agencies such as Toronto Fire Services, plus give-aways from Corporate Champions. This year's 9 hour program features an exciting varied collection of almost 50 acts and near on 300 performers on the 2 separate outdoor stages (Industry professionals and talent scouts are invited to witness our Youth's abilities). Food and beverage stations with service the audience capacity of 25,000 - No alcohol will be vended or served.

Invitation Dissemination:

YOUTH DAY has attracted Media Sponsorships from FLOW 93.5, Tribute Magazine and the Tandem Community Papers who ensure the GTA is aware of the venue. Universities, Colleges and Schools have received invites, while Press Releases get the main media out to cover the “good news story”. TCHC, Tourism listings, on-line databases and Libraries, plus dozens of Youth organizations are already working with us. The Youth's mediums; Facebook, myspace, word-of-mouth, and posters and over 10,000 flyers will do the rest!
